

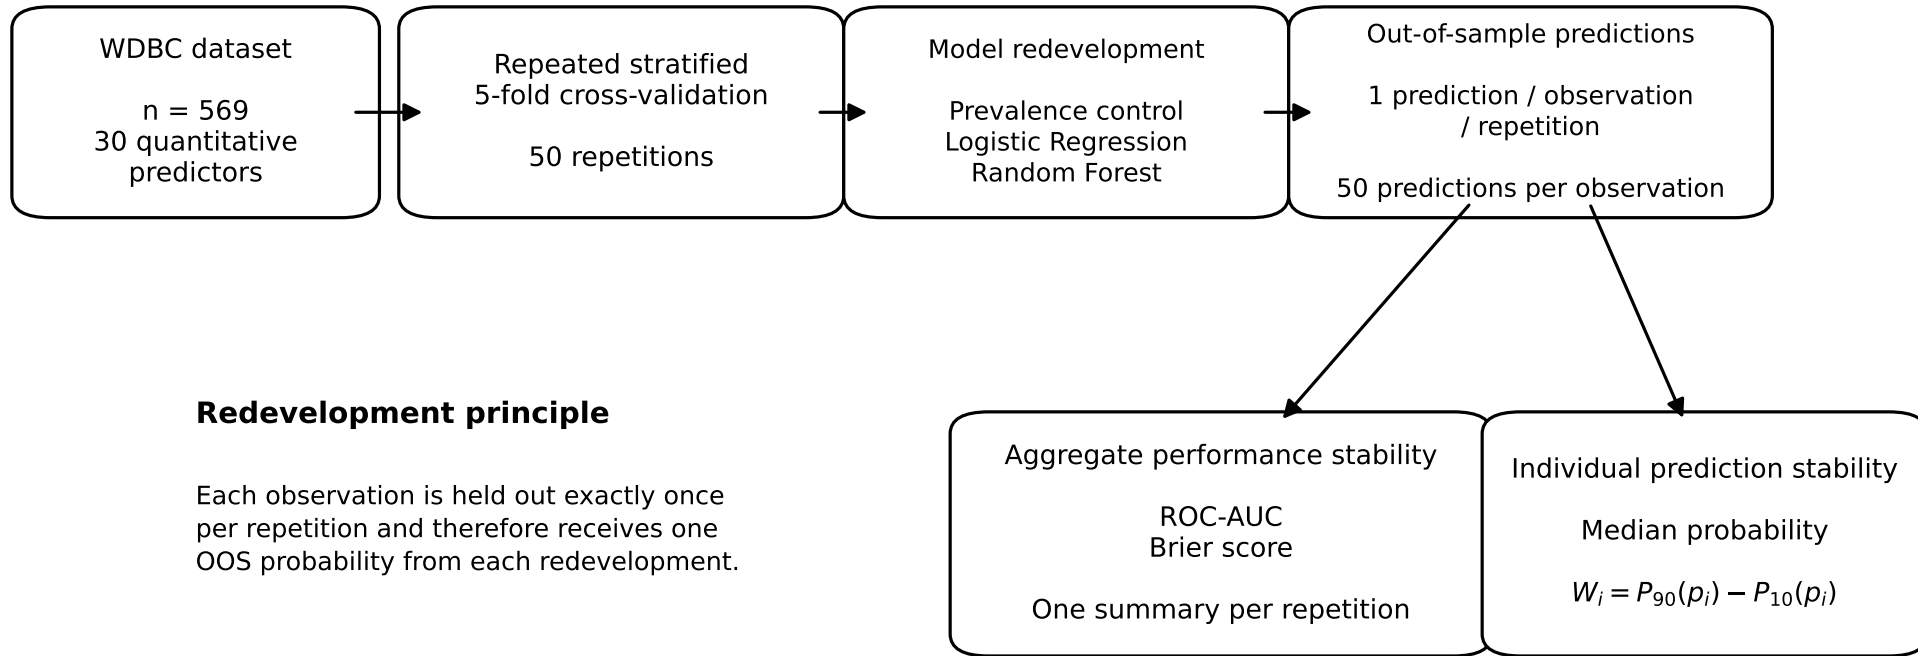

Figure 1

Repeated redevelopment framework for aggregate and individual prediction stability

Redevelopment principle

Each observation is held out exactly once per repetition and therefore receives one OOS probability from each redevelopment.

The 50 repetitions represent alternative redevelopment samples from the same dataset, not independent patient cohorts.